Attendance

Our attendance is really important to us and should be above 95%. As many children are ill it has dropped to 92%. Each week, the winning class receives 10 minutes extra play each week.

Robin 90.8%

Kingfisher 90.5%

Skylark 95.6%

Swan 88.3%

Well done Skylarks!

WHAT HAVE WE BEEN DOING?

Antibullying On Monday all of the classes watched the Big Antibullying assembly and pledged to stop bullying. The children completed activities using hands and socks to show how everyone is unique.

Drama work- the children are enjoying their drama sessions linked to friendship. These lessons teach the skills of performing, speaking in a group, following instructions. They are covered in a cross-curricular way, linked to topics that are being taught in class.

Swimming -Robin Class swam for the second time this week and are showing great confidence in the water, especially jumping in. Kingfisher having been swimming for a while now and are learning to swim on their front and back.

Hello Yellow- today we wore yellow or odd socks for Young Minds- to raise awareness of young people's mental health. This years campaign is linked to kindness, a virtue our children show on a daily basis- helping each other, looking after others when they are upset. Our celebration assembly each week hears about the wonderful ways in which our children behave in such a positive manner.

National Poetry Day

Yesterday the children really enjoyed sharing, watching videos and performing poems. Kingfisher Class performed the poem 'There's a monster in my garden!' Shown on Twitter.

School Council met yesterday for their first meeting. They looked so smart and were very professional in their attitude throughout the meeting.

Change to diary dates- please check the dates below and add them to your diary as there have been some changes.

Enjoy the weekend, Mrs Price
