Well done Kingfishers!

WHAT HAVE WE BEEN DOING

Clubs started again this week. Drama club starts Monday. Coding club is next if there is enough interest, at a cost per term. As places are limited, please ensure that your child attends.

DRAMA with Mrs Wray

Amelia Wray runs Winsford School of Drama and is working with pupils every Monday on the theme of friendship. She will be running a club after school each Monday and organising a performance too.

Art Week It's been a very creative week with all classes completing Art work for our new display boards that will be going up very soon.

McDonald's Day was a huge hit!

We have listened to the feedback from children and parents and have made slight amendments to the menu, which can be found on our new website. Theme Day Thursday will continue and we'll let you know each week.

Bonjour from Mrs Capewell

Mrs Capewell is teaching every class from Reception to Year 6. The children learned greetings, colours and Heads, Shoulders, Knees and Toes in French this week.

PE The children are enjoying their weekly PE lessons with Miss Burch and swimming lessons at Weaverham and Brio. Skylark Class will begin swimming after February half-term so that all children will have had the opportunity to swim this academic year.
